Number 20

Tuesday, April 1, 2014

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 11:00 a.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by the Reverend William Birdsall of New Life Presbyterian Church of Fruitland Park, upon invitation of Rep. O'Toole:

Almighty God, Maker of all that is and ever was. We are before You fully aware that we do not earn and cannot demand Your presence in our midst. You have shown through history, faithful people, and Holy Writ, Your passion to care for and guide Your creation including those in this body of decision-makers. May each one here bring a humble heart, an open mind, and thoughtful words and thereby be equipped to do the people's work. Let the principles of truth and justice and honesty guide this vital assembly as they handle the business of our state. The work and votes affect all of those of us that they represent. Pray, give their attention to the environment, to clean and ample water, to jobs we all need, to thought-through energy policies, education for our children, and all these things that impact life in our state of Florida. Grant them, O Lord, a sharp and clear vision of what is best for the people and for all of life. And as they deliberate on actions needed for our future, give each a sympathetic ear to the other point of view. And then, Lord, filtering through the discussion and any differences, let each find her or his pathway to the best policies. Lord God, we pray as well for those who have sent these representatives here to this place to make worthy decisions. And may they treat their personal representatives with gentle firmness and positive attitudes, that all will fortify the political process. Your divine purpose and intention be done for Your creation in these next days as these representatives of the people do their work. Realize, there are various perceptions, I make this prayer in the name of Jesus. Amen.

HR 9055—A resolution designating March 30, 2014, as "Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans Day" in the State of Florida.

WHEREAS, the Vietnam War took place in Vietnam, Laos, and Cambodia from November 1, 1955, until the United States Congress passed the Case-Church amendment in 1973, which prohibited the further use of American military forces in the area, and

WHEREAS, the United States became involved in Vietnam, first in an advisory role to the South Vietnamese, because policymakers in the United States believed that if South Vietnam fell to a communist government, communism would spread throughout the rest of Southeast Asia, and

WHEREAS, on August 7, 1964, the United States Congress overwhelmingly passed the Gulf of Tonkin Resolution, which effectively handed over the war-making powers to President Lyndon Johnson until such time as peace and security had returned to Vietnam, and

WHEREAS, in 1965, there were 184,000 United States troops in Vietnam, and by 1969, that number had grown to more than 500,000 troops, and

WHEREAS, on January 27, 1973, the Paris Peace Accords was signed, which required the release of all United States prisoners of war held in North Vietnam and the withdrawal of all United States Armed Forces, and on March 30, 1973, the United States completed the withdrawal of combat troops, and

WHEREAS, during the course of the war, more than 58,000 members of the United States Armed Forces lost their lives in Vietnam and more than 300,000 were wounded, and

WHEREAS, because of the intense public opposition to the war that existed at the time, members of the United States Armed Forces returned home to an unprecedented lack of formal positive recognition of their honorable service and the tremendous sacrifices they had made on behalf of their country, and

WHEREAS, the lack of formal "Welcome Home" parades and other traditional celebrations that were common for United States soldiers returning from previous military engagements, coupled with verbal and sometimes physical abuse, resulted in great disillusionment, undeserved indignity, and often great suffering and anguish among returning Vietnam veterans, and

WHEREAS, it was not until 1982 that the Vietnam Veterans Memorial was dedicated in the District of Columbia to commemorate those members of the United States Armed Forces who died or were declared missing in action in Vietnam, and

WHEREAS, it is fitting and appropriate that the House of Representatives encourage and support efforts within the state to redress the lack of appropriate recognition and undeserved ingratitude that so many of these brave servicemen and servicewomen received upon returning home, and

WHEREAS, "Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans Day" is an appropriate way to honor those members of the United States Armed Forces who served during the Vietnam War, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That March 30, 2014, is designated as "Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans Day" in the State of Florida and, in recognition of the 41st anniversary of the end of the United States' involvement in the Vietnam War, Florida's state agencies and officials, counties, municipalities, and community organizations are called upon and encouraged on this day to publicly acknowledge and demonstrate the state's appreciation for the honorable service and sacrifice of its Vietnam veterans.
